Event Practices:

- Judges, stewards and exhibitors should maintain the required distancing throughout the event.
- A table will be set up so Exhibitors can, one at a time, check themselves in on the board with their own pen and pick up their armband(s) from the table.
- If your class is off leash, be prepared to put your leash in a chair when entering the ring and retrieving your leash after the course is completed. The chair will be disinfected after the leash is removed.
- The Judge will announce the awards in the ring, but Exhibitors will pick up their award ribbons from a specified location.

Rally Practices:

- AKC suggests course maps not be printed for exhibitors and that exhibitors may take photos of rally course maps which will be posted in several locations. There will be a limited number of printed copies available. If you need a printed copy and there is not one available, please let the Trial Secretary know and she can print one for you.

Obedience Practices:

- Rather than using stewards for the Figure 8 exercise, tall pylons will be used.
- Judges may wear gloves or use hand sanitizer between examination exercises. If a judge chooses to use gloves, gloves will be sanitized between exhibitors or a new pair will be used for each dog
- Examination – ensure social distancing requirements are met during examination exercises, for the Utility Moving Stand for Examination, the judge should approach the dog at a slight angle to ensure distancing requirements from handler to judge are met.
- Novice Group Exercise – the distance requirement has been modified to 8 feet between dogs and rows to ensure social distancing guidelines are met
- Directed Retrieve – A grabber will be used by the Steward to pick up the gloves. The grabber will be wiped down between exhibitors.
- Scent Discrimination Exercise – The steward responsible for placing the articles may wear gloves or use hand sanitizer. Tongs, when used, should be wiped down between dogs.

Basic Protection:

- Maintain social distancing
- Wash hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds.
- If soap and water not readily available, use hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol.
- Avoid touching eyes, nose and mouth with unwashed hands.
- Cover your mouth and nose with a cloth face cover when around others – even if you do not feel sick
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched surfaces, such as tables, doorknobs, light switches, countertops, handles, phones, faucets, etc.

AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.
